About June 1 next, H. P. Stocker, the undertaker, will install a new auto hearse.

Mrs. Alva Binkley and daughter and Mrs. O. C. Buechly spent Friday in Dayton.

Mrs. J. B. Hershey visited relatives in Anderson, Ind., several days the past week.

Roy Jamison was here from Cleveland a few days the past week visiting relatives.

Mrs. Walter Mendenhall and daughter are here from Pittsburgh, Pa., visiting among relatives.

Lawrence Brunton and wife were here from Richmond, Ind., to attend the funeral of Miss Isabel Ketring.

John Ream, wife and children, of Milwaukee, Wis., are the guests of his parents on Washington avenue.

Bert Harrison and wife of Grand Rapids, Mich., were visiting among relatives and friends in Greenville the past week.

Mrs. Will Siefert, nee Alice Stingley, formerly engaged in the millinery business in this city, is dead at her home in London, Ohio.

Daniel Burns, who was operated on a week or so ago, for removal of a varicose vein in his left leg, will soon be out and about again, as he is recovering nicely.

Lew Descham, in jail on a charge of chicken stealing since January 16 last, having been brought here from Versailles, was released from custody this week upon recommendation of the prosecuting attorney and commissioners.

The dog poisoner is again at work in this city and several valuable dogs have been dispatched. It seems it is mostly this kind that meets such fate at the hands of the poisoner and if possible to apprehend him it should be done and the full power of the law meted out to him.

Upon our roll of honor today we can place the following named patrons:

W. H. Routsong.
J. H. Dunham.
J. W. Hemp.
Gabriel Riegel.

Judge Bowman has appointed ex-Sheriff John C. Burns as court bailiff to succeed Ray Compton, resigned. Mr. Burns assumes his new duties on March 20.

"Doc" Gard has taken the position of manager of "The Hall" billiard and pool room, succeeding Fred Dasher, who goes to Nebraska.

The funeral of Miss Isabel Ketring, aged 24 years, was held Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rector Gross reading the Episcopal burial service. Burial was made in Greenville cemetery.

Walter Branch, an escaped prisoner from the Dayton workhouse, was arrested on Martin street, in this city, by Officer McGriff last Thursday afternoon. Supt. Mittendorf of Dayton came up Friday morning and returned with his prisoner.

The farm home of Alfred Marker, a mile north of Greenville, on the Ansonia pike, was burglarized one afternoon last week, and about $65 in money taken, after the thieves had ransacked the whole house. The Markers were away from home at the time. Nothing but the money was missed.

Word has been received here this week that Comrade John P. Winget of this city is quite sick and confined to the hospital of Nashville (Tenn.) Soldiers' Home. Of late years Mr. Winget has gone to this home to spend the winter months, returning here in warm weather. His friends will be sorry to hear of his affliction and hope for a speedy recovery.

W. E. Deal and wife of Fort Recovery, who were sued on a promissory note for $4268 last week by W. D. Rush, as administrator of estate of E. E. Calderwood, have filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District court, giving their liabilities as $7188, of which amount $1438 represents unsecured money; assets, principally real estate, valued at $7000.

Charles E. Williams, who was injured in a collision with an automobile, driven by O. C. Buechly, on the night of December 3 last at the intersection of West and Union streets, at the Greenville cemetery, his horse killed and dray demolished, has entered suit against Mr. Buechly for $5000 as damages, setting forth that he has been permanently disabled by his injuries.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Prachter, relict of Frederick Prachter, and 75 years old, died about 8 o'clock Monday morning in the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mollie Prachter, on Elm street. She leaves two grandchildren, a brother and a sister. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the residence of Mrs. Prachter, conducted by Rev. Ploch of the German M. E. church. Burial was made in the Teegarden cemetery, near Woodington.

Mrs. Mary R. Smith, wife of James Smith, rural mail carrier, died in their home on Sater street at 2:30 Sunday afternoon of cancer of the head and face, after a lingering and painful illness. She was a daughter of Daniel Patten and wife, now deceased, and leaves her husband, a son and a daughter. Three sisters—Mrs. Thomas McNutt of Van Wert,

Mrs. M. S. Taylor and Mrs. Fred Lefever, and three brothers—Albert Patten of Cleveland, Wm. and Irwin Patten of this city, also survive her. Funeral services, which were strictly private, were held at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the residence, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Douglas, of the Christian church, and burial made in Greenville cemetery.

Mrs. Caroline W. Klinger, 79 years old, wife of A. J. Klinger, died in their home, corner Devor street and Gray avenue, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after several weeks' illness with a complication of ailments. Burial in Greenville cemetery.

White Man with Black Liver.

The liver is a blood purifier. It was thought at one time it was the seat of the passions. The trouble with most people is that their liver becomes black because of impurities in the blood due to bad physical states, causing Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness and Constipation. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clean up the liver, and give you new life. 25c at your druggist. —Adv

Palestine.

The K. of P. anniversary, held last Thursday evening, was certainly great. The Knights were out in full force, and the sociability of those present was remarkable. The programme was excellent. The monologue given by Miss Stover and the tramp act by Ralph Klase were especially good. An abundant lunch was served, which all seemed to enjoy very much.

Mr. Harsh, living a mile east of town, passed away last Saturday afternoon. He was well esteemed by all who knew him.

Mrs. Eleanor Perry is visiting her son, O. L. Perry, west of Palestine. A number of relatives in this vicinity, attended the burial service of Miss Isabel Ketring at Greenville Saturday afternoon.

Elmer Sellman and family and Harley Monks and family visited with Mr. Sellman's father Sunday.

T. J. Wilson and wife motored to New Madison Sunday afternoon.

year in the United States exceeded that of any other farm commodity. Every farmer and his wife and children are interested in poultry culture—and most people in the small towns, and not a few in the cities find both pleasure and profit in raising chickens.

But in poultry culture, as in everything else, people who go about it in the right way have the best success. If you want to know how to increase your income from poultry, take the best poultry paper published. We will send it to you, with three monthly magazines and our own paper in a club—all one year for only $1.25. It is one of the best club offers we have ever been able to make to our readers, and every subscriber is entitled to it—both new and old.

Insidious Persistence.
"I understand that you have broken your engagement with Harold Jimkins," said one girl.
"We were never engaged," replied the other. "The trouble with Harold is that he is too grammatical."
"What has grammar to do with it?"
"He took advantage of the fact that when I get excited I stammer. When he asked me to marry him I said 'No, no!' and he immediately insisted that two negatives make an affirmative."—Washington Star.

New Rubber Coagulant.

An important discovery. It is claimed, has just been made in the use of coconut water as a rubber coagulant. This new method if as successful as experiments would indicate should prove a great boon to the Ceylon rubber industry. Millions of gallons of coconut water which now run to waste on estates in copra drying and desiccation mills can be utilized as a profitable byproduct, besides producing a superior coagulant in making rubber. Details of the process are not now available, but it is understood that the coconut water is allowed to ferment for four or five days, after which it can be used immediately for coagulating latex. One to two ounces of the fermented liquid will coagulate one pint of pure latex. It is said to produce a better rubber than that produced from the present method of using crude acetic acid, especially so far as color goes and clearer than that obtained from the cocoa fermentation acid treatment.—Consular Report.

A HUMAN MENAGERIE.

Her "lamb" his mother called him when he was a toddler small.
His nunky "little monkey" his wee nephew used to call.
He grew up fat and awkward, to the girls "a great big calf."
At college he was "gay young dog." They said it with a laugh.
He entered next the Stock Exchange, and there he was a "bear."
As he was shrewd, one said of him, "A fox, I declare!"
Making a coup d'etat, a "lion" he became.
"A mean skunk" some men said who lost and on him placed the blame.
Later from "bear" he turned to "bull," a foolish step alas!
He dropped his entire fortune and was frankly dubbed an "ass."
—Boston Transcript.

A Compliment.

"I've lent Grampus my garden hose, my lawn mower, my phonograph and my safety razor, but I had to refuse his last request."
"What did he want?"
"He wanted to borrow my photograph to carry on a flirtation by mail."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.
